

Conference train travel: Special Offer!

LEICESTER 2013

Great News!

East Midlands Trains have offered us a special deal for SHA 2013 delegates

The current price for Corporate and Events tickets from London St Pancras to Leicester return is £42 1st class and £27 standard class – this price will increase on 1st January 2013, but is considerably cheaper than buying tickets when you arrive at the station.

In order to get these specially priced tickets SHA delegates need to contact East Midlands Trains directly at corporateandevents@eastmidlandstrains.co.uk and request tickets. Once payment has been made (by telephone +44 (0)1332 867050), tickets can be collected from ticket booths in the railway station itself. Make your booking before 1st January 2013 to ensure you obtain your tickets at the lowest price.

You can use these trains if you fly into Heathrow (get the underground to Kings Cross/St Pancras or get the Heathrow Express to Paddington and then the underground to Kings Cross/St Pancras); or you can buy tickets under this Corporate and Events deal to travel down to London from Leicester for a day (or longer) of sightseeing.

You can find more information about travel before, during, and after SHA 2013 in the conference travel guide, here: <http://www.sha.org/documents/TravellingtoLeicester.pdf>
