The Society for Historical Archaeology publishes the quarterly journal Historical Archaeology. Subscription is by membership in the society, and membership in the society is open to all. Visit http://www.sha.org and click on “Join SHA” to become a member, or contact SHA headquarters, 13017 WinStar Drive, No. 395, Germantown, MD 20874, or call 301-972-9684. Manuscripts submitted for journal publication should be sent to the Journal Editors, J. W. Joseph, New South Associates, Inc., 6150 Ponce de Leon Avenue, Stone Mountain, GA 30083. Citation and reference style follow that specified on the society’s website, http://www.sha.org/publications/style_guide.htm. Books, lengthy articles, websites, or films for review should be sent to the Reviews Editor, Richard Veit, Department of History and Anthropology, Monmouth University, West Long Branch, NJ 07764.

Search Historical Archaeology articles with an author, title, and subject keyword-searchable directory, or browse the journal by volume and issue.

Consider Reviews. SHA publishes its reviews on books, films, exhibits, and websites online twice annually.

Hone your skills with Technical Briefs in Historical Archaeology. These specialized technical papers in historical archaeology, maritime archaeology, material culture technology, and materials conservation are published annually. Titles include

- Vase Rollout Photography Using Digital Reflex Cameras
- Evidence of Use and Reuse of a Dog Collar from the Sloop of War HMS Swift (1770)
- Use of Remote Surveillance Motion-Activated Cameras for Monitoring Rural Archaeological Sites
- Metallographic Analysis of a Spearhead Found Near Farrell Mitaña, Argentina
- Forensic Hair and Fiber Examinations in Archaeology
- Telling Time for the Electrified: An Introduction to Porcelain Insulators and the Electrification of the American Home
- Delineation and Resolution of Cemetery Graves Using a Conductivity Meter and GPR

Catch up on society news and events. The SHA Newsletter, a quarterly publication, contains news, a range of topical columns, a current research section featuring historical archaeology news from around the world, announcements, and a calendar of events. SHA newsletters from 1999–2007 are posted in the Newsletter Archive.

Download the SHA Style Guide to learn how to prepare articles for submission to the journal.

Visit SHA Online to purchase publications on historical archaeology, including recent editions of Historical Archaeology. Other titles now available include

- Historical Archaeology and the Importance of Material Things II, edited by Julie Schablitsky and Mark Leone (2012)
- Perspectives from Historical Archaeology: The Archaeology of Spanish Missions and Colonies in the New World, compiled by Steve Tomka and Timothy Perttula (2011)
- Perspectives from Historical Archaeology: Revealing Landscapes, compiled by Christopher Fennell (2011)
- Perspectives from Historical Archaeology: Mortuary and Religious Sites, compiled by Richard Veit and Alasdair Brooks (2011)
- Perspectives from Historical Archaeology: The Archaeology of Native American-European Contact, compiled by Timothy Perttula (2010)
- Perspectives from Historical Archaeology: The Archaeology of Plantation Life, compiled by Nicholas Honerkamp (2009)

Members have access to all Historical Archaeology journal articles online. Nonmembers have access to articles published prior to 2007.
